Article - Name

The name of this organization shall be “The Ontario Municipal Health and Safety Representatives Association”, herein after referred to as “the Association”.

Article II - Definitions

Municipality: For the purposes of these By-laws, reference to “municipal”, “municipality” and/or “municipalities” shall include; municipal & regional, government, First Nations council bands, utilities, conservation authorities, publicly funded transportation services, and agencies, library and school boards, commissions and other organizations which are funded by municipal or regional levels of government and comparable levels of public service organizations as determined by the Executive.

Article III - Mission

The Association will represent the interests of its members in Ontario by:

- a) Providing a forum for the exchange of health and safety information amongst municipalities;
- b) Encouraging the development and exchange of ideas, methods and standards of practice;
- c) Assessing the impact of legislative initiatives;
- d) Working in conjunction with government agencies to provide assistance and information; and
- e) Providing and encouraging professional development of the membership.

Article IV - Membership

Application for Membership

To become a member of the Association, a person must submit a written application to the Executive. Membership will be granted by a majority vote of the Executive.

To be eligible for membership, the applicant must satisfy the criteria as defined below.

Practising Member

This member is in an active professional and non-union occupational health and safety role. This may include: municipal & regional, government, First Nations council bands, utilities, conservation authorities, publicly funded transportation services, agencies, library and school boards, commissions and other organizations which are funded by a municipal or regional level of government, and comparable levels of public service organizations, as determined by the Executive.

Membership is based on the fact that the individual spends approximately 50% of their time providing occupational health and safety expertise to the organization. This may include internal Health & Safety Consulting, Training, Claims Management, Disability Management, Human Resources, Driver Trainer, Emergency Management, performing the duties of a JHSC Management Co-Chair, etc. A membership application should include a copy of a job description or posting. This member has voting rights within the Association.

Associate Member

By approval/invitation of the Executive, this member is in a professional occupational health and safety role from the public sector and is not an employee of a municipal & regional, government organization defined as a practising member. Their work meets the membership requirements of a practising member. An invitation will only be extended if ratified by a majority show of hands of all Practising Members in attendance at a general meeting. An Associate member does not have voting rights with the Association.

Internet Associate Member

By approval/invitation of the Executive, an individual working in a field related to Health and Safety will be permitted to participate in the OMHSRA electronic mailing list. An invitation will only be extended if ratified by a majority show of hands of all Practising Members in attendance at a general meeting.

This membership is intended for participation by out of province members.

The Executive reserves the right to rescind such privilege, as they deem necessary.

Honourary Member

At the discretion of the Executive, and by member request, an Honourary Membership may be conferred upon a former member of the Association who meets the following criteria:

- i) Ten years as a member (in any membership class) of the Association, or
- ii) Five years as a member (in any membership class) of the Association, including at least one year on the Executive, and
- iii) Is retired and is no longer employed full-time in the Occupational Health & Safety field.

Honourary Members will be exempt from payments of dues and will receive minutes and OMHSRA ML access at their request.

An Honourary member who returns to full-time gainful employment shall relinquish their Honourary Membership and may reapply at a future date in time.

Transferability

Title to the membership belongs to the payer of the membership fee.

The Executive may permit transfer of membership, at the request of the payer, provided the person to whom the membership is transferred meets the criteria for membership.

Termination of any Membership

For just cause and upon the recommendation of the Executive, individual membership may be suspended or terminated.

Article V – Rights and Responsibilities of Members

- a) Members have a responsibility to promote health and safety within the municipal environment and to assist fellow members with the development and implementation of effective policies and procedures.
- b) Only Practising Members are entitled to vote on matters presented to the membership for a vote.
- c) No member shall use or permit the use of membership in the Association or the Association's membership list, minutes, OMHSRA Mailing List content or contents of the OMHSRA Policies & Procedures or media storage devices by non-members for the purposes of solicitation..
- d) With the exception of information in the public domain, no member shall share specific information that identifies another municipality or member without the explicit permission of that member.
- e) Members are to act in good faith and with the understanding that information shared at meetings or via electronic means may be confidential in nature.

Article VI - Fees

- a) The annual membership fees will be recommended by the Executive each year (in the 3rd quarter) for a ratification vote by those Practising Members in attendance. Subject to paragraph (b) below, fees will be for one calendar year and will be due by the end of March of the affected membership year.
- b) New Members whose application is received after July 1st in a given year shall be half the Full Membership fee for that year.

- c) Failure to pay the annual membership fee will result in termination of the membership on a date deemed appropriate by the Executive.

Article VII – Election of Officers

- a) Election of officers will be initiated by the Chairperson in the 3rd quarter general meeting. Nominations will be accepted at the 4th quarter general meeting and elections will be opened during that general meeting prior to the end of that calendar year.
- b) Only Practising Members may run for office.
- c) The officers of the Association, collectively referred to as “the Executive”, shall include:
 - (i) Chairperson
 - (ii) Vice-Chairperson
 - (iii) Secretary
 - (iv) Treasurer
 - (v) Membership Director
 - (vi) Program Director
 - (vii) Immediate Past Chairperson
- d) The Chairperson, Vice Chairperson and Treasurer will be elected for a term of two calendar years.
- e) The Membership Director, Programs Director, and Secretary will be elected for a term of two calendar years.
- f) The Immediate Past Chairperson may remain as a member of the Executive until such time that a new Chairperson is elected.
- g) Elections will be held by secret ballot.
- h) Officers will be elected by a majority vote of all Practising Members, casting ballots. (A candidate has a “majority” of the votes if he or she receives more votes than any other candidate).
- i) In the event of a tie, a second ballot will be conducted.
- j) Vacancies which occur in the Executive will be filled at the discretion of the Executive, for the remainder of the term.
- k) Nominations for the Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson require the nominee to have served at least two years on the Executive.
- l) Any member of the Executive who fails to attend three consecutive meetings (either executive or regular meetings of the membership) may have their executive status revoked and their office deemed vacant by the remainder of the Executive.
- m) The Executive may appoint non-elected members to assist them in performing their duties. Non-elected members will not have voting rights on the Executive. These roles may include: Communications, Technology or Resource roles deemed necessary by the Executive for the continuing functioning and betterment of the Association.

Article VIII – Authority of the Executive

The Executive has the authority to conduct the day-to-day business of the Association. It has the authority to:

- a) Establish the dates, times and locations of the general meetings, subject to paragraph (c) of Article X;
- b) Change the date, time and/or location of a meeting, provided notice was given to all members two weeks prior to the originally scheduled date or the new date, whichever is earlier;
- c) Approve any expenditures which are related to the normal day-to-day operating costs of the Association;
- d) Establish a yearly operational budget to be presented to the membership at the last general meeting to allocate funding for the activities of the Association for the up-coming year;
- e) Spend up to $2,000.00 on any single expenditure, including honourariums, without the prior approval of the membership, consistent with the established budget;
- f) Conduct negotiations and enter into contracts on behalf of the Association, and for the purpose of carrying out the general business of the Association, without prior approval of the membership;
- g) Establish business partnerships to improve recognition of OMHSRA and for the betterment of its membership;
- h) Establish reasonable fees for organizations wishing to advertise potential employment or up-coming event opportunities for OMHSRA members; and
- i) Conduct any other business related to the day-to-day operation of the Association as deemed necessary by the Executive as a whole.
